

Best of Boyd dynasty goes on display

A STUNNING collection of works by the legendary Boyd family went on display at Kangaroo Valley recently.

The highly anticipated Best of Boyd exhibition was officially opened by the Executive Chairman of Sotheby's Australia, Tim Goodman, at Galeria Aniela Fine Art Gallery on Saturday March 20.

Arthur Boyd's son, Jamie, whose works were displayed along with his father Arthur's and his uncle David's, travelled from his home in London to attend the opening with his wife Helena.

Spanning over six generations, the Boyd dynasty remains one of the most successful families in the art world.

The exhibition also features works by Sydney Nolan and sculptor Robin Holliday.

OPENING: Artist Jamie Boyd, gallery owner Aniela Kos and Sotheby's Australia Executive Chairman Tim Goodman at the opening of the Best of Boyd exhibition held at Galeria Aniela in Kangaroo Valley on Saturday March 20.

CLEVER ART: Scientist and sculptor Robin Holliday from West Pennant Hills with his piece Endless Mobius Strip.

HANDS UP: Doctors in the area for a conference, Dr Mandy Evans from Hobart and Dr Judy Raymond from Canberra discussed this piece by Auguste Rodin called Cathedral Hands Facsimile.

RENOWNED: Arthur Boyd's son, Jamie Boyd, whose works were displayed along with his father's and his uncle David's, travelled from his home in London to attend the opening of the Best of Boyd exhibition with his wife Helena.

ART LOVERS: Hans Walloschek, Denise Stodus, Karin Walloschek and Ralph Stodus from Bellawongarah browsing some of David Boyd's oils.

southcoastregister.com.au

Hosting the Family this Easter?

Big 21/25 Cooked Prawns Special Easter Price of $50 5kg box

Enjoy the Easter Festivities by purchasing Quality Meats, Seafood, Chicken and many, many other products at Wholesale Prices

Open to the public:
Monday-Friday: 10am-4pm Saturday: 10am-1pm

CMJ Wholesale Meat & Catering Supplies Pty Ltd
7 Concorde Way Bomaderry 2541
Phone: 4421 4744 Fax: 4422 1959
Email: cmjwholesale@bigpond.com